“Will Rogers’ U.S.A.” Available for Bookings

One-Man Show Brings the Legend Back to Life

(Alexandria, VA) Kaleidoscope Theatre Company is proud to present “Will Rogers’ U.S.A.,” featuring Rob Cork as Will Rogers.

Will Rogers’ wisecracking, folksy humor and topical philosophical observations made him one of America’s most popular entertainers throughout the long days of the Great Depression.

In “Will Rogers’ U.S.A.,” actor Rob Cork aptly recreates the rope-twirling and slyly grinning comedian in select moments from some of his most characteristic and strikingly relevant stage and radio performances.

“We’re delighted to have the opportunity to reintroduce Will Rogers and his one-man show to modern audiences,” said Rob Cork, Artistic Director of Kaleidoscope Theatre Company.

“Will Rogers’ U.S.A.” is available for performances at your venue. Running time is one hour, which includes time for questions. School schedules can also be accommodated. Required performance space is approximately 10 feet deep by 15 feet wide, preferably in a meeting room with a carpeted floor or a stage. We book programs on weekdays, weekends, and evenings, as our schedule permits. Please contact us for our current fee schedule.

Will Rogers’ U.S.A. is presented by special arrangement with George Spota Productions of Hollywood, California. It was adapted from the words of Will Rogers by Paul Shyre and originally produced by George Spota.

Kaleidoscope Theatre Company is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization. Its mission is to bring the magic of live theatre to children and their families.
